

I do not want to be bothered with solicitations of any kind on the phone in the evening or on weekends....if one of these institutions needs to contact people they should use the mail system and buy mailing lists, at that point, the person has the option of throwing the mail away.